SINGAPORE, 16 JANUARY 2025 – Mount Faber Leisure Group (MFLG) kicks off the year with an enhanced and grander edition of Singapore's award-winning show, Wings of Time, now rebranded as Wings of Time Fireworks Symphony. A landmark at Sentosa's Siloso Beach, it is the world's only multi-sensory night show that blends advanced technology and stunning visual effects with the natural backdrop of the open waters. Since its debut in 2014, the show has captivated over six million visitors. Starting 1 February 2025, Wings of Time Fireworks Symphony will unveil a major upgrade: an extended fireworks display, now four times longer, delivering an even more spectacular experience.

To celebrate Singapore's 60th birthday, Wings of Time Fireworks Symphony is also offering a special weekday promotion for Singaporeans and Permanent Residents. From 3 February to 28 March 2025, standard seat tickets for the 8:40 PM weekday show will be available for just $0.60. Advance tickets can be purchased on MFLG's website from 16 January, with counter sales beginning 3 February.

Mr Buhdy Bok, Managing Director of MFLG, stated, "We are thrilled to start the new year with an enhanced experience that takes our signature show to a whole new level. The expanded fireworks display, with nearly 200 shots lighting up the sky at Siloso Beach daily, will offer a truly immersive experience, perfectly synchronised with key moments of the show. The fireworks soar up to 40 meters, creating a vibrant, unforgettable spectacle."

The show follows Shahbaz, a mystical prehistoric bird, as he embarks on an extraordinary journey with his friends Rachel and Felix through awe-inspiring landscapes and pivotal moments in history. With a combination of synchronised fireworks, 3D projection mapping, lasers, water fountains, and effects, Wings of Time Fireworks Symphony offers a mesmerising experience designed to appeal to audiences of all ages, making it a must-see experience for visitors from around the world.

Located at the heart of Beach Station and easily accessible via Sentosa Sensoryscape, Wings of Time Fireworks Symphony offers two nightly performances at 7:40 PM and 8:40 PM, each lasting approximately 20 minutes. With a capacity to accommodate 2,500 guests per show, it serves as the perfect grand finale to a day at Sentosa, captivating audiences with its dazzling spectacle set against the island's scenic backdrop, making it a one-of-a-kind experience in Singapore.
